

DUNE

DUNE is the landscape of light which interacts with human behaviour. The hybrid of nature and technology is composed of hundreds of fibers that brighten according to the sounds and motions of passing visitors.

Visitors are a direct part of the artwork, enhancing social interactions between themselves and the landscape. DUNE is exhibited internationally in musea and public spaces across the globe.

<https://www.studioroosegaarde.net/project/dune>

