

LUNAR

LUNAR consists of interactive light objects placed at the Youth division of the Mental Health Care GGz.

LUNAR emits sound and colour upon detection as a new play therapy for children.

By intervening with the existing architecture, LUNAR creates an informal interaction between children, their therapy and the building.

<https://www.studioroosegaarde.net/project/lunar>

