

Sustainable Dance Floor

SUSTAINABLE DANCE FLOOR is the interactive dance floor which generates electricity through the act of dancing. Studio Roosegaarde created the design and interaction of the first Sustainable Dance Floor.

We believe sustainability is about doing more, instead of less. Via smart technologies a sensual and interactive environment is created in which dancers are engaged with the sustainable experience.

Date: 2008

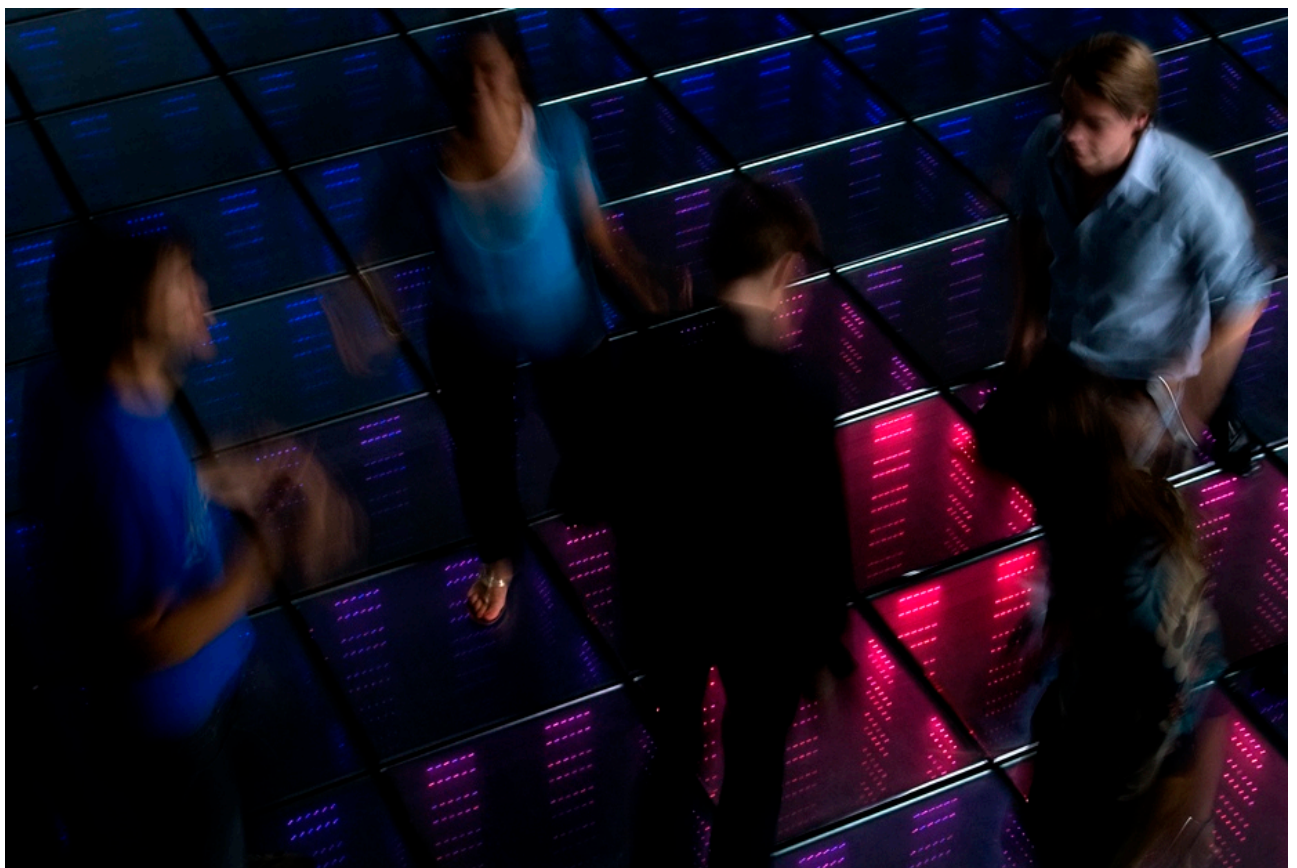

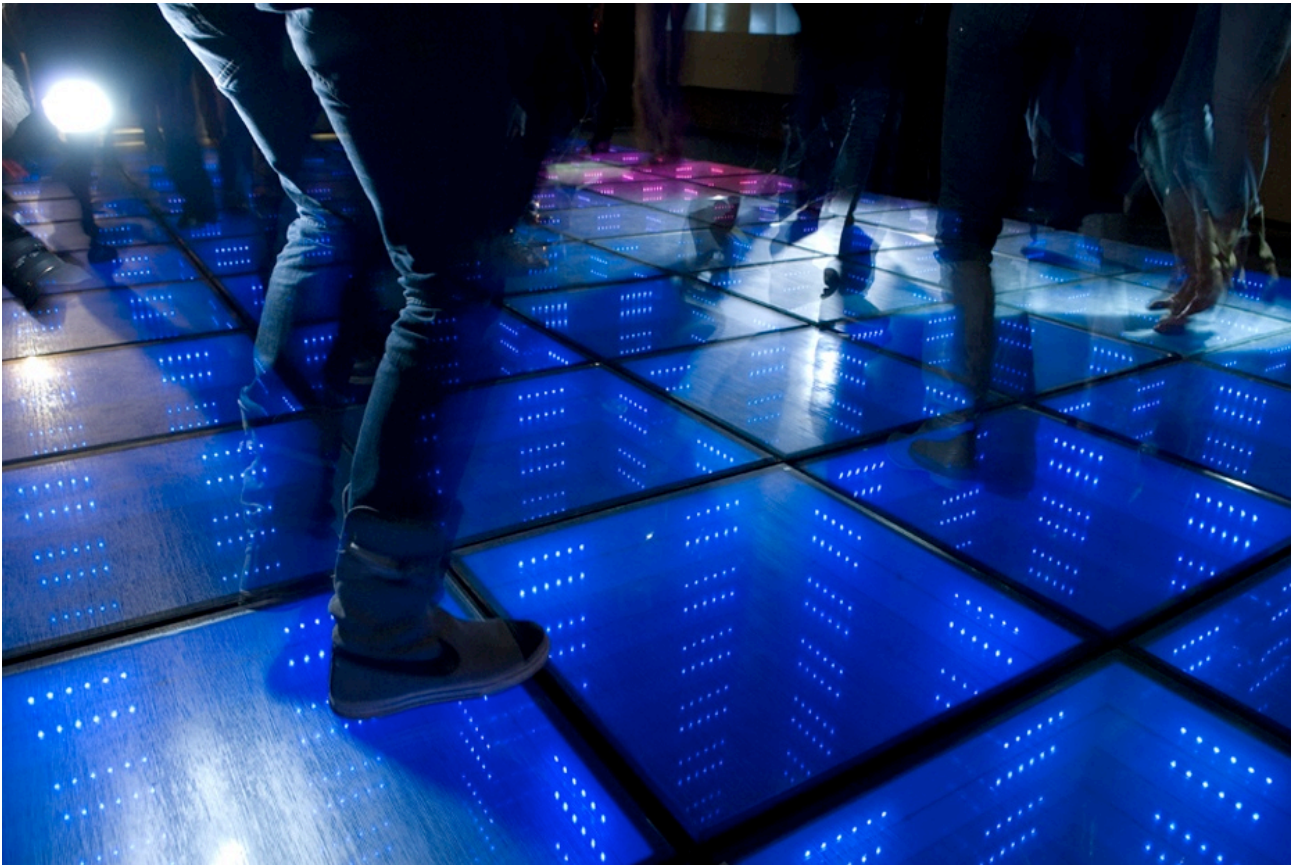

Client: Sustainable Dance Club

Materials: Sustainable materials, energy harvesting mechanism, software and embedded electronics.

Artist: Daan Roosegaarde

Size: Modular system, length 65 cm, width 65 cm, height 30 cm.

More info: www.studio Roosegaarde.net

Club WATT, Rotterdam, NL.